Failure to Flourish: How Law Undermines Family Relationships

One way to increase social mobility is to increase human capital, but, as I show in Failure to Flourish: How Law Undermines Family Relationships (Oxford University Press 2014), this can happen only if we strengthen families. Education is a key component of human capital, but what happens at home in the first few years of life—long before a child starts Head Start or pre-kindergarten—can set a child on a trajectory that is difficult to alter in later years.
