When the College Consultant is Your Mom | Road2College

Instead of resting, I fought with my mother. I criticized her for washing the bottles wrong, for messing up my son's sleep schedule, for trying to take over. Instead of being thankful for — and receptive of — her help and motherly knowledge, I pushed her away at a time when I needed her most. After only a couple days, she booked a last-minute flight back home and left me alone with my baby ...
