Readers are in for a satisfying wild ride with bestseller Armstrong's well-plotted third and final thriller featuring contract killer Nadia "Dee" Stafford (after 2008's Made to Be Broken). Dee's commitment to justice stems in large part from an incident that occurred when she was in her teens: she and her cousin Amy were assaulted by a serial rapist and killer—and only Dee survived.

Wild Justice (Nadia Stafford #3) by Kelley Armstrong. Blurb: Protect the innocent. If there is any one principle that drives hit man Nadia Stafford, it's this. In her own mind, when she was thirteen, she failed to protect her older cousin Amy from being murdered. Now she fails again, disastrously, when she botches a hit.

Wild Justice by Kelley Armstrong (Nadija Stafford #3)

"Wild Justice", the third and last book in the Nadia Stafford series about an ex-cop turned hitman for the mob, provides a very satisfying end to the series as well as a good standalone novel. For me, the appeal of this series comes from an inversion of the normal assumptions in crime novels.

Wild Justice: Book 3 in the Nadia Stafford Series: Nadia ...

Wild Justice is the third and final book in Kelley Armstrong's Nadia Stafford series. It is an adult contemporary mystery thriller. It has been years since I read book two in this series. But surprisingly everything came back to me fairly easily. I love Kelley Armstrong and am a big fan of many of her other series.
